Lobby & Waiting Room Wall Graphics

RMH recently partnered with custommedialabs, an interactive media agency, to create a custom wall graphic to adorn the lobby of their North American office. The wall graphics were installed in time to celebrate custommedialabs 10th anniversary at their new global headquarters in Wayne. custommedialabs design of the wall features notable Philadelphia landmarks coupled with some unique and creative design elements. RMH printed the graphic on textured wall wrap vinyl and RMH installers adhered the graphic in manageable sections making sure that the final display was seamless.
