

Expect more than ink on paper.

June 2012

Wayfinding and Directional Packages

Watch the Movie

Click Here To Watch a Short Movie of the Product

RMH recently partnered with Main Line Realty and designed an ADA compliant wayfinding system which used three points of touch at every sign. Text, color, and pictograms were used to help Paoli's customers easily encode directional information. Aside from making the signage more easily read, the graphics in each sign can be removed and reprinted inexpensively when updates are required.