November 2007

Welcome to the RMH Image Group eNewsletter. Almost every day we hear the same statement from our customers: "I didn't know you could do that!" So in an effort to keep you better informed, each month we will spotlight a recent unique project we completed at RMH.

Photorealistic Pole Banners

Photorealistic Pole Banners are an excellent way to promote your brand or just increase the general aesthetics of an area. The LaSalle College High School Pole Banners look great while using solvent ink and gloss vinyl banner material.
