

What's Up at RMH

January 2007

Welcome to the RMH Image Group eNewsletter. Almost everyday we hear the same statement from our customers: "I didn't know you could do that!" So in an effort to keep you better informed, each month we will spotlight a recent unique project we completed at RMH.

Selling Spring Arts Point

If you have ever looked to buy a home, the initial feeling you had about a place weighed heavily on your final decision to buy. So how would you sell a home that hasn't been built yet? Prudential Fox and Roach designed a unique solution when they created a plethora of stimulating visuals within the sales office for Spring Arts Point. RMH had the pleasure of joining Prudential to convert these visuals into a reality. Two sided indoor signs installed into wall mounted swivel frames depicted the different floor plans available to potential home buyers. In addition, polyester translucent fabric banners with pinch frames attracted passersby on the street. If an interested passerby walked inside, they were greeted by single sided signs mounted to a drafting table which revealed the town home and condominium layout.
